

David O. Landrith

David Landrith currently serves as the Vice President of Policy and Political Affairs for the Arizona Medical Association. He became involved in health care administration in 1983 when he assumed the position of Associate Executive Director of the Arizona Board of Medical Examiners, a position he held for five years before joining the medical association. Prior to that, David served six years as Executive Director of the South Eastern Arizona Government Organization and completed an earlier six years with the League of Arizona Cities and Towns.

David holds a Masters Degree in Public Administration from Harvard University and completed his undergraduate studies in political science at Arizona State University.